

ikiryō

A SHORT FILM BY T. J. DE BOS

Official Selection

Indiewood Film Festival 2026
TCL Chinese Theatres · Hollywood, California
Premiere: 17 September 2026

LOGLINE

A solitary man documents a presence in his home, and finds himself confronting a surreal reflection of the self he has tried to suppress.

SYNOPSIS

After a solitary man begins noticing signs of a mysterious presence in his home, his attempts to document the anomalies only deepen his fear. As the haunting grows more personal, he is forced to confront a disturbing and surreal reflection of the self he has tried to suppress.

SPECIFICATIONS

Runtime	19:55
Year	2026
Aspect Ratio	16:9
Dialogue	None
Country	United States

CREDITS

Written, Directed, Shot,
Edited & Produced by	T. J. De Bos
Starring	T. J. De Bos
Original Score	Post Age
Artwork	Missy Shermer

DIRECTOR

T. J. De Bos is a first-time filmmaker based in Northeast Ohio. With a background in music production, he emphasizes the role of sound and score in shaping and elevating visual storytelling. Ikiryō marks his directorial debut, a psychological horror short exploring themes of identity and emotional suppression, for which he also served as writer, producer, cinematographer, editor, and lead actor.

PRESS CONTACT press@mwcoast.com

www.ikiryofilm.com · letterboxd.com/film/ikiryō-1 · imdb.com/title/tt43741159

Presented by Midwest Coast